We appreciate your business with our auction.

We do not have firsthand experience with the following companies nor do we warranty their services. However, they have reached out in the past and requested that we share their information with our buyers.

Any Shipper/Hauler must have proof from the buyer on record that they are the permitted party to pick up the items and complete information about the items they will be hauling. If they do not bring a copy please have buyer email it to register@rogersohio.com
